1. Introduction

2.5.2 Mechanism of Internal/External Assessment is transparent and the grievances redressal system is time bound and efficient.

Response:

- The fundamental stakeholders of educational institutes are the students. The Institution has to ensure that every activity is open and transparent. All grievances about the internal and external examination are properly accepted, and any necessary changes or redress are made.
- Every year a committee is made with the Principal as a chairman of the committee for grievances related to the internal/external assessment. A meeting of the committee is conducted twice in an academic year and all grievances are assessed by the committee and necessary actions are taken accordingly.
- The timetable for the internal exams is displayed at the start of academic semesters and exams are conducted with strict discipline and any sort of unfair means are prohibited. For minor complaints, students initially approach concerned department faculty members like allotment of marks, summation of marks, or skipped evaluation.
- The faculty members hear the student's issues and resolve their issues. If the grievances of the students need to be resolved at the college level then heads of the departments are the primary recipients of all complaints regarding the internal assessment. In some cases, they are sent to the examination committee (if necessary) of the college if they are not satisfied. Applications are collected for any university-related grievance and sent to the appropriate authorities in the University.
- The complaints of students regarding examinations, such as questions regarding hall tickets and online form submission corrections to the name, subject, code, program, and pattern, as well as errors in the entry of marks and absentees are attended by the college and forwarded to the university if necessary and resolved.

- The college is implementing the centralized assessment program (CAP) for first-year classes of the UG program in accordance with the guidelines of the affiliating university. Additionally, a separate examination cell made up of a senior teacher, administrative staff, and exam clerk is in charge of handling complaints regarding examinations.
- Students can request photocopies of their assessed answer sheets from the university within fifteen days of the announcement of their results to answer any questions they may have. The outcome. Within 30 of receiving an application, a photocopy of the assessed answer sheets is made available to students upon request. The student can contact the University for Reevaluation within fifteen days of receiving the online photocopy of the answer sheet. If there is a discrepancy, the student can ask the subject teacher for their opinion. Within 45 days, the evaluated result is released. If a candidate's original marks and the marks they got after the reevaluation are more than 10% of the maximum marks set by the university, they get the benefit of the reevaluation.
- The university is the ultimate authority for seeking a solution to any complaint regarding the course syllabi or evaluation methods. The college and the Board of Studies or Board of Examiners work together to resolve complaints and ensure a positive outcome for students, the primary beneficiaries of the system.
- During external semester exams, complaints regarding out-of-the-syllabus questions, repeated questions, improper scoring, missed scores, and incorrect numbering are directed to the principal, who is also the chief superintendent of examinations. The principal promptly and responsibly forwards the complaint to the University for quick resolution.
